ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Consumer Curriculum Handbook was initially developed for New Partnerships for Women (NPW) by an ad hoc collaborative work group whose members met for over a year between April of 2001 and June of 2002. The work group's members included: Jessica Barton, NPW; Lori DeGayner, Survivor; Heather Dunn, Cornucopia and Yahara House; Mary Beth Forsythe; Nancy Lee Fowlkes, Phi Beta; Dianne Greenley, Wisconsin Coalition for Advocacy (WCA); Cindy Harrington; Heather Hazelwood, NPW; Barb Hennings, NPW, Yahara House; Karen Herro, Cornucopia; Anne Ivey, NPW, Families United Network; Lori Kinnard, Cornucopia, NPW, Grassroots Empowerment Project; Lori Luebke, NPW, Employment Resources, Inc.; Ellen Magee, Catholic Charities; Karen Milstein, Cornucopia, Yahara House; Carin Mizera; Joy Newmann, University of Wisconsin-Madison School of Social Work; Alyson Petrick; Ruth Roshke, Consumer; Jolanda Sallmann, NPW; Anne Sullivan; and Kimberlee Wright, Domestic Abuse Intervention Services (DAIS).

The Handbook was revised and renamed in 2007 in response to several years of feedback from women who had participated in trainings and our desire to ground it in more recent empirical findings about the nature and effects of trauma. It also represents an attempt to incorporate material that has broad appeal to women of diverse ethnic and racial backgrounds and includes a new chapter on self-advocacy skills produced by Disability Rights Wisconsin. The Consumer Curriculum Revision Committee, chaired by Joy Newmann, included: Donna Erickson, Annette Felice, Mary Beth Forsythe, Lori Kinnard, Sherrill Sellers, and Alev Wilk. Others were added to the group in the final review process, including Yolanda Bohorquez, Jeanne Boydston, Emma Earl, Dianne Greenley, Julie Holfelz, and Marie Sarto.

We thank workgroup members for their selflessness, insight and humor! Without your hard work, knowledge, and expertise, this Study Guide would not have been completed. We also thank the agencies and programs that many of our workgroup members represent for supporting the efforts of NPW by donating the time of their staff during the initial development of the Handbook. We especially thank the YWCA of Madison for both housing and believing in the goals of the New Partnerships for Women project since its inception. Gayle Ihlenfeld, the project supervisor in 2001-2 deserves special thanks for her considerable help and support. The 2007 revisions were completed with the guidance and leadership of Annette Felice, our project coordinator during the years NPW incorporated and moved to the Rape Crisis Center of Dane County. We thank Rape Crisis and its Director, Kelly Anderson, for continuing to offer support to the project these past three years.

The initial Consumer Curriculum Development Workgroup and publication of the Consumer Curriculum Handbook was supported by the YWCA of Madison and paid for through a grant from the Department of Health and Family Services (DHFS), Division of Supportive Living, Bureau of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services. The revisions were supported with funds from Mental Health America, the Bureau of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services of DHFS, and generous contributions from individuals during NPW's fund raising campaigns. We thank our funders for their support, which made the Handbook revisions possible. However, its contents are solely the responsibility of the authors and do not represent the official views of the YWCA of Madison, DHFS, or RCC.
